

“Future success will require an education system which is itself responsive and flexible and which is open to new ideas..”

Improving Scottish education, HMIE 2006

- The relationship between inspectorates and those being inspected

Workshop

- Your workshop group and where you will meet is on the table in front of you
- There are six questions to debate in your workshop room. Each group is invited to start with the same number question as their group, then move on to look at any others of interest.
- Share one example of good practice from each inspectorate.
- Please appoint a chairperson and someone to record the views of the group.