

SICI WORKSHOP

PORTO, 13 AND 14 SEPTEMBER 2012

Venue: HOTEL HF IPANEMA PORTO – CAMPO ALEGRE 156-174, 4150-169 PORTO

12 September – Arrival of participants

17:30 to 19:30 – Registration and folders (desk at the hotel lobby)

13 September (Room Porto)

08:30 – Registration and folders (desk at the hotel lobby)

09:00 – Welcome session

- Agostinho Santa, Deputy Chief Inspector
- Leonor Duarte, Portuguese Senior Chief Inspector
- Graham Donaldson, President of SICI

09:45 – Briefing on the agenda (Helder Guerreiro)

10:00 – Keynote Speech 1 on Innovation

Innovation, Quality and the School Ecosystem: Challenges to the Inspectorate

António Dias de Figueiredo (emeritus professor of Information Systems at the Faculty of Science and Technology of the University of Coimbra)

10:45 – Debate (moderator – Helder Guerreiro)

11:00 – Coffee Break

11:30 – Keynote Speech 2 on Innovation (moderator – Maria José Dias)

Ignorance, curiosity and social change – Pedro Bacelar de Vasconcelos (law professor at the University of Minho and responsible for the Research Centre on Human Rights)

12:15 – Debate

12:30 – Lunch Break

14:00 – Approaches of Inspectorates to innovation (moderator – Helder Guerreiro)

- How the Flemish inspectorate stimulates innovative schools – Frans De Bie and Ingrid Ocket (Belgium / Flemish Community)
- School external evaluation as a key to find success. Identifying positive practice and publishing it. Learning from successful practice – Jurgita Maslauskite (Lithuania)
- Inspection reports in the Wallonia-Brussels Federation: a different approach – Franck Livin (Belgium / Francophone Community)
- How the Regional Inspectorates of Education in Bulgaria encourage the principals to introduce innovations in the school management – Ivan Panayotov (Bulgaria)

15:15 – Group discussions on some questions raised

15:45 – Approaches of Inspectorates to innovation (moderator – Maria José Dias)

- How to assess the effectiveness of ICT use in Schools and classrooms? Michel Perez (France)
- Developing Insight and Internal Challenge – Stephen McShane (England)
- Looking at transformational change in learning: using inspection to encourage modern educational practice – Aileen Monaghan (Scotland)

16:30 – Group discussions on some questions raised

17:00 – Coffee Break

17:30 – Guided Visit around Porto (approx. 1h30)

19:30 – Departure to official dinner (at Taylor's Port Wine cellars)

23:30 – Departure to the hotel

14 September

08:45 – Departure to school visits (2 schools – 2 groups of participants)

Campo Aberto School cluster – Póvoa de Varzim (preventing dropouts and overcoming failure - Fénix project)

Nogueira School Cluster - Braga (integration of minorities)

- ✓ Welcome
- ✓ Presentation of innovative practices (from the point of view of schools)
- ✓ Presentation of innovative practices (from the inspectors' point of view)
- ✓ Debate
- ✓ Guided visit to the school
- ✓ Coffee (10:30)

12:30 – Return to the hotel

13:30 – Lunch

(Room Foz)

14:30 – Innovative schools: what do we expect from inspections?

Álvaro Santos (headteacher and former chair of the national council of schools)

15:00 – Workshop highlights Rapporteur(s)

16:00 – Closing session

- Luís Capela, Senior Chief Inspector
- Petr Drábek, SICI EC member

16:30 – End of the workshop