SICI workshop on "how to measure social outcome in schools"
Son SPA 15th-17th June 2011, Norway

Dear members of SICI,

On behalf of the Executive Committee the Norwegian Directorate of Education and Training is happy to invite you to a SICI workshop on how to measure social outcome in schools, in Son SPA hotel outside of Oslo.

The workshop "how to measure social outcome in schools" follows up the workshops in Copenhagen and Amsterdam on Citizenship and "How to measure output/outcome in schools".

We start the workshop on June the 15th at lunch and end on June the 17th after lunch. On the 16th of June we start the day by visiting four schools round about Oslo. The school visits will be prepared mini inspections on social outcome. Most of the 15th of June is set aside to prepare the school visits. The 17th of June holds two lectures and closing remarks. We then finish the workshop with a lunch. For more detailed information, please see the attached preliminary time schedule.

Accommodation and travel information

The workshop takes place at Son SPA hotel about 40 minutes outside of Oslo. The hotel is beautifully situated in the Norwegian archipelago. As the name of the hotel reveals the hotel is a SPA resort, and all the participants have access to the hotel facilities<sup>1</sup> during their stay. The price pr. night for a room at Son SPA hotel is NOK 1 395. This includes all meals during the stay. There is direct bus transfer from the Oslo Airport Gardermoen to Son station. It takes about 1 hour and 10 minutes. From the station to the hotel there is a 5-10 minutes drive. The bus driver on the airport express bus will on request order taxis for the passengers.
